Investment Thesis

Opportunity

1. Global News Intelligence Market: valued at € 2.12B as of 2025, growing to € 24.87B by 2032
2. Market Fragmentation: Fragmented between legacy firms and AI-powered startups
3. Market Tailwinds: Increased regulatory requirements (GDPR & CCPA), ESG reporting, and business insight demand
4. AI Acceleration: Rising demand for AI-driven insights

Competitive Advantage

1. Processes 5-10x more articles
2. Detects 65% more entities
3. Works with 42 enterprise customers currently
4. Capable Team: Diverse team with varying skillsets and expertise

Return & Growth

1. Scaling to € 21.6M ARR by 2030 from €4.5M today
2. Expand North American presence & workforce expansion
3. Strategic Exit at € 86-129M with an MOIC of 2.7-3.8x & IRR of 22-31%

Top Down-Market Sizing

Product, Differentiation & Tech

Products

- Signal: Real-time news dashboard. Bundles search and alerting on top of the existing NLP-enriched news & risk signals. (Launched 1 year ago <1m ARR)
- News API: Gives technical users access to underlying enriched news data, entities, sentiment, and risk signals for integration into internal models and tools (Primary revenue driver)

Platform Architecture

Differentiation

- Research-led NLP: 28 publications and thousands of citations
- Scale: Processes 5-10x more articles than LexisNexis, with 65% more entities detected and 7 times more topical categories
- Customer Traction: 8 customers have switched from LexisNexis, adding €400k ARR
- Varying Product Packages: Offer a tailored product for Tech Users, analysts or hybrids with flexible fees and seat counts

Competitive Advantage

- Speed & Accuracy Moat: Proprietary NLP Engine and a mature 10-year-old engine. Patent pending
- Agility vs Incumbents: Smaller & faster to customize for customers
- Data Quality: Proprietary source filtering & scoring system for data reliability, 5x as accurate
- Customer Stickiness: High integration & Churn of 15%

Team Analysis

Key Board Members

Name	Title	Background	Key Strengths
John Parker	CEO & Founder	PhD AI & First-time founder	Expert in NLP and has developed key relationships with customers
Ben White	CFO	Previously EY	Experience with financial controls and auditing. Been with company for 5 years.
Adam West	CTO	Previously Salesforce	Engineering leadership and experience developing technical architecture
Martin Green	VP Product	Previously Microsoft	Road mapping enterprise products & integration of customer feedback
Mike Brown	VP Marketing	Previously Behavox	Brand building and go-to-market strategy
Richard Pemrose	Non-Executive Director	Board member at Citigroup & HSBC	Provides Strategic guidance and regulatory expertise

Overall Assessment

- Highly capable team, well-suited for the company's needs. Team skill sets cover founder deficiencies in finance, go-to-market, and sales.
- The main concern remains Key Person Risk, as the company's growth still relies heavily on the founder, despite a well-rounded team.

Team Assessment: (Gompers et al., 2020)

Metric	Evaluation Criteria	Assessment Basis	Score (1-5)
Skills	Founder Alignment with Company Needs	Founder has a PhD in AI, and the board has prior experience in SaaS/fintech	5
Cohesion	Role clarity across team	Clearly Defined positions in board	4
Integrity & Trustworthiness	Alignment with investor expectations	Client base is mostly blue-chip clients, and they have reviews by a top legal firm (Simmons & Simmons)	4
Execution Risk	Dependence on original Founder (Key Person Risk)	Reliant on the CEO, but supported by strong board members & managers	3
Motivation & Commitment	Willingness & Ability to accept opportunity cost	The company is over 10 years old, 6 of which were spent on the NLP engine	5
Complementarity	Complementary Team Skill Set	Strong mixture of tech and commercial experience but lacks sales experience	4
Experience	Prior startup / Exit Experience	The CEO is a first-time founder, but the senior team has prior exit experience	3

Team Expansion after Funding

- Hiring of a new VP of Sales
- Expansion of a new office in North America
- Expansion of the sales team to reduce the sales cycle

Key Risks & Mitigation

Risk	Description	Current Risk	Mitigation	Future Risk
Data, IP & Compliance Risk	The proprietary engine is built on data from third-party news feeds and internal client documentation, which may give rise to IP disputes or data privacy issues. 90% of customers are on 1-year non-auto-renewing subscriptions and face 15% churn. 2/3 revenue comes from larger clients Inbound heavy marketing model, with a small sales team and a poor inbound conversion of 1 in 20. Long sale cycle of 3–6 months for inbound & 6-9 months for outbound. Growth may hinder their ability to stay agile and innovative Solely owned by the CEO. Key person for development of product ideas and client relationships The NLP engine is exposed to rapid AI advancements and runs on Google Cloud infrastructure.	Medium	Regular compliance reviews by Simmons & Simmons. Diversify news vendors and maintain audit trails of data sources and their insights	Medium
Revenue Concentration		High	Shift to 3-5-year contracts and US team expansion	Medium
Sales-Execution Risk		High	Expand the sales team and improve marketing and sales materials. Shift to Account Based Marketing	Medium
Scalability Risk		Medium	Expand R&D on a standard product, creating common templates usable for different enterprises	Low-Medium
Key Person Risk		High	Add independent non-executive directors by Q1 2027. VP of Sales hired to expand customer relationships in new markets by Q2 2026. Key Person Insurance	Medium
Technology Reliability & Platform Risk		Medium	Set clear uptime targets; add disaster recovery and multi-region backups to the platform. Increase R&D expenditure in AI	Low

Key Insights

- Growing revenue, fixed R&D and infrastructure costs drive EBITDA margin expansion to 47%
- FCF margin expands from 23% to 31%
- Rule of 40 stabilizes around 70% in the long run
- Projected €6.2M pipeline for 2026, supports projected revenue growth and maturation of around 22% long term

Valuation Analysis

Key Insight

- Valuation range between € 27.7-35.4M, with a base case of € 31.5M, implying a 5.5x EV/Revenue multiple
- Valuation implies a 7.0x EV/ARR, above SaaS peers, highlighting SigmaData's strong financials and growth opportunities

Observations

- Market Comparables & Precedent Transactions highlight the premiums currently being paid, but also the large variation for market intelligence firms, which are not reflected in the DCF valuation
- The DCF floor value is underpinned by the EBITDA margin expansion from 39% to 47% as the company scales

Top Down

TAM

- The Size of the Global Content Intelligence Market is 2.5 billion USD as of 2025, with a range $2.010-2.770 billion. This aligns with reports by Mordor Intelligence, Fortune Business Insights & Precedence Research. The content intelligence market encompasses News, Social media, video content, images, internal reports/documents, marketing content, e-commerce data, and web analytics.
- SAM
- Sigma Data's customer base is primarily in Europe and North America. According to studies, the global market encompasses 55%, with NA accounting for 32% and Europe for 23%.
- This adjusts down the regional SAM to $2.5 \times 0.55 = 1.38B$
- Sigma Data's customer base comprises 90% enterprise and financial institution customers. Studies highlight that they account for 70% of expenditure in the content intelligence market. So, we further narrow down the Sam
- $1.38 \times 0.7 = 0.97B$
- Sigma data primarily focuses on news-based risk & market intelligence, not generic content and marketing media. Reports highlight that Banking, financial services, and insurance account for 20-27% of the Content intelligence market, the area which Sigma data targets.
- $0.25 \times 0.97 =$ USD 241.2M BFSI SAM
- Corporations span retail/healthcare and others, which, according to the data, account for 30-40% of the market; hence, I will multiply 30% of post enterprise to get the size of the corporates.
- $0.97 \times 0.3 = 291.0M$ Corporate/Consultancy SAM
- Total SAM: $291.0 + 241.2 =$ SAM: USD 533.22

SOM

- 3% Capture of SAM = $0.03 \times 533.2 =$ \$16.0M SOM

TAM: 2.12B euros SAM 459.67M, euros 13.7M SOM

Assumed 30% Dividend Pay out, 13.7% of which is received by Unity Venture

Metric	Bear	Base	Bull
Exit route	Strategic M&A	Strategic M&A or PE secondary Sale	Strategic M&A or IPO
Rationale	Growth and US expansion end up slower than planned, hence less bidders for the company	SigmaData has strong ARR growth and strong US traction, attracting both strategic and sponsor investments.	SigmaData leads the market in AI news intelligence with deep market integration, creating possibility of an IPO
2030 ARR Assumed	€18m	€21.6m	€25m
EV/ARR multiple	4.0x	5.0x	6.0x
Exit EV	€ 72M	€ 108M	€ 150M
MOIC on €5m	1.9x	2.9x	4.1x
5-year IRR (approx.)	14%	24%	33%
Key assumptions	Multi-year contracts and US office do not expand quickly with very minor churn improvement	US office and multi-year deals expand according to plan with churn falling to between 10–11%.	US and sector expansion are very successful with higher ARPU and a churn under 10% premium multiple.

Aventis Advisors highlights over 1000+ SaaS private transactions had a median EV/Revenue Multiple of 4.7x, with previous software transactions having a range between 2.0-7.2x EV/Revenue Multiple (Aventis, 2026)
